To Subscribers of Periodicals Published from the Soviet Union

Newspapers and magazines in English and Indian language published from the Soviet Union are supplied on subscription basis directly from the Soviet Union to the subscribers by post (supplier : V/o Mezhdunarodnaya Kniga-

V/o Mezhdunarodnaya Kniga, Moscow, has agreements with 16 agencies in India for enrolling subscribers.

A 12-sheet multi-coloured calendar only is offered to all subscribers as a free gift by the publishers of the magazines given through the agencies and their agents and only to subscribers enrolled during the subscription period.

All enquiries and complaints about wrong addresses, changes of addresses or non-receipt of magazines, etc., should be addressed to the distributor concerned or, in those cases where the subscription agreement has been paid by the suppliers, V/o Mezhdunarodnaya Kniga.

Reproduced below is the facsimile of the receipt issued by the Distributors of the periodicals published from

These receipts have been issued separately for each magazine (indicating the name of the magazine) and also for one year and three years (indicating the subscription rate).
